Multimedia Journalism Checklist

You must have at least 46 graduate (500 or 600 level) credits (at least 24 graded) with a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or higher.

Fall Term

- J611 Mass Communication and Society (4)
- J610 Foundations of Multimedia Journalism (4)
- J610 Thinking Story (4)

Winter Term

- J563 Reporting Story (4)
- J610 Multimedia Practices: Pitching Stories (2)
- J610 Multimedia Practices: Social Media Communities (2)
- Possible JC610 Joint Campus Course (4) and/or professional development workshop (2)

Spring Term

- J563 Producing Story (4)
- J638 Story and Commerce (4)
- Possible JC610 Joint Campus Course (4) and/or professional development workshop (2)

Summer Term

- J596 Communication Ethics (4)

Fall Term

- J609 Terminal Project (6)

Joint Campus Course
Multimedia Journalism students are allowed, with advisor and departmental approval, to take graduate courses at any of the other institutions in the Oregon University System. A student registers for these courses with the University of Oregon Registrar, who records each grade on the academic record under Joint-Campus Course (JC610). Forms are available at the Office of the Registrar. The placement of JC610 in winter and spring terms above is a recommendation. It can be taken in any term.

Professional Development Workshops (2 credits) Elective

- 2 credit workshops are not required, but strongly recommended for a more enriching experience. Please see Strategic Communication Master’s Degree section for a list of workshops.

Terminal Project Checklist – should be completed in order

- Advisor selected
- Committee selected
- Project proposal approved and completed, and filed with SOJC
- Enrolled for at least 3 graduate credits during graduating term
- Foreign language requirement completed if you are pursuing a MA degree. MS does not have a language requirement
- Applied for graduation on Grad Web by second week of term in which you plan to graduate
- Oral defense completed
- One copy of terminal project submitted to SOJC printed on bond paper and unbound.